Letter Congratulatory from the Privy Council of Scotland, to His Majesty upon the Concluſion of the Peace, and His Majeſties ſafe Return.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AFter Our Thanks to Almighty GOD: We do with all Joy, heartily Congratulate the moſt happy Succeſs of Your Arms, in Terminating ſo long and great a War, by ſuch an Honourable and Advantagious Peace, which is amongſt the greateſt of Earthly Bleſſings. And yet We have to Congratulat a far Greater to Us and all Your good Subjects: And that is, Your Majeſties ſafe Return to Britain, to the Univerſal Satisfaction and Rejoycing of all Your Kingdoms: which Bleſſings as they are truly beyond our Expreſſion, ſo ſhal they ever Oblige us, to all that Faithfulneſs Love and Duty, that can be expected from the moſt Loyal of Subjects to the beſt of Kings. And we do heartily pray Almighty GOD, that He who hath made Your Majeſty the Great Reſtorer of our Religion, Laws and Liberty, and the moſt Glorious Eſtabliſher of the Peace of Chriſtendome, may always preſerve your Sacred Perſon, from all Deceit and Violence: and make Your Life and Reign, as long and proſperous, as they are indeed moſt Dear and Deſireable to us, and all Your Majeſties good Subjects. We are

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,
Your Majeſties moſt Faithful, moſt Loyal,
and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.
Sic ſubſcribitur

Edinburgh, November 20. 1697.

Marchmont Cancellar. Melvill P. Tweeddale, Southerland, Morton, Buchan, Leven, Annandale, Tarbat, Roſs, Carmichael, Ruthven, Ja: Stuart, Ad: Cokburn, Wm Anſtruther, Jo: Maxwel, Arc: Murray, Ard: Muire.

Edinburgh, Printed by the Heirs and Succeſſors of Andrew Anderſon, Printer to the King's moſt excellent Majeſty. 1697.

312092